► Story 15 years ago, after the continent of Elden was split in two, a great war broke out. With the help of the royal family, a champion was established, and a code was created, which has gone on to become a legend: The Elden Ring Cracked Version. This story continues a journey that starts here as you take command of the castle, a fortress for the Guardian Clan, one of the most powerful royal houses. A life of peace will be overturned when the Representative Clan, a group of rebels, attacks the castle, and the Guardians will be forced to decide between unity and disagreement. ► Challenge In the Lands Between, a whole variety of monsters awaits you. Defeat them to raise your level, raise your battle power, and build a stronghold. The battle with the monsters can be a profitable experience for you. During the battles, you will be able to fight on the field of Valyria, and if you win, you will win both valuable experience and materials. If you wish to live a life of leisure, you can also utilize the unique resource of a fortified place in the wilderness. The player will also experience battles in large cities during their training quests. ► Strategy The battles against the monsters will not be possible unless you use the various methods of warfare. • Weapon Skills Craft your own weapons using a variety of materials such as materials that you find, or purchase them at the blacksmith. • Armor Skills You can equip armor with a variety of items, including boots, a helmet, a shield, and a waist armor. • Magic Skills By determining the attack direction using the W, A, S, and D keys, gather mana and enhance your battle power and develop various skills. ► Attribute System In addition to the weapons, armor, and skills that you learn during your own training, you can freely customize the attributes of these items to establish a personalized weapon. This allows for a variety of weapon skills. ► 10 Characters ► Customization You can freely customize your character's appearance such as the appearance of your weapon, uniform, and hair. Please see the "Customization" page for a full list of customization methods. ► Customization You can freely customize your character's appearance such as the appearance of your weapon, uniform, and hair. And that's the issue. A: Remove the border-top:0 from this CSS: div.row { margin-top: 18px; border-top: 1px solid black; background-color: inherit; } This is making it so the div has a border-top, which is pushing your content down, instead of creating the extra space that you want. Anti-Brexit protestors picture themselves walled in with concrete gates in front of the Houses of Parliament (Picture: AFP/Getty) Anti-Brexit protesters have said that after voting in favour of leaving the EU in last month's referendum, they are determined to never see the back of Britain's EU membership. Spanning almost 100 activists, the majority of whom have been coming from the People's Assembly Against Austerity, and who arrived on Tax Island today, vowed to trap the British government in a concrete wall between them and the Houses of Parliament in Westminster. The protesters have hoisted a sheet of brown paper over an old plastic barrels which they then hurriedly covered with stone and mortar. Anti-Brexit protesters (Picture: Reuters) One group used machines to pump air into the barrel, while a second group attached a strong piece of rebar around the premises they have covered. The groups are then planning to try and apply to cover the rebar with what is claimed to be around 600 tonnes of concrete. These images show a view from across the Thames (Picture: Reuters) The handful of activists - who described themselves as anarchists - said they were planning to stick to their tenacious action for as long as it took for the government to eventually move out of the country. Setting themselves to pump air into what they describe as a 'concrete box', one protester from the People's Assembly Against Austerity said: 'We want to stay outside, there's no amount of negotiation we can do that will change the
