The game is a visual novel with action roleplaying elements. Though there are limited activities that can be done, it is meant for those who prefer more roleplaying than simple action. The visuals are stunning, so just taking in the scenery is encouraged.This game is meant for mature audiences, and is meant for entertainment purposes only. Certain scenes may be considered graphic for a 17 year old, and it is recommended to be at least 19 years old to play this. There are references to various items in society, and may not be appropriate for young adults (though not underage as far as I can tell, although I am not a parent so I don't know.) My intent is to allow that age range. Again, it is meant for entertainment purposes, no one is intended to base their values on what they see in this game. This is just a proof of concept. I still have a lot of work to do before the final release, but I believe that now you can start to see why I need funding for it. The music is all by me, and I am hoping that some artists will participate in this art to help make it better. Without a Voice has 6 endings (Three long and 3 short ones), and all of them are very different. It can be simply described as a movie for your laptop. Thank you for your support, and enjoy the ride! A: I enjoyed your idea, also the poster you made - it's really stylized and cool. It seems (imho) that your idea lacks a captivating idea: the RPG-without-plot. Rather than being a default freeform RPG that uses a choice-and-consequence mechanism, it's more like a visual novel with various choices and consequences. The twist at the end when you get to a "choose what you really want" phase turns it into an "RPG, without-a-plot". It seems a bit less as an RPG and more as an RPG-with-sidequest. An RPG-with-sidequest is not a bad idea, but only if there are bits like you're doing there: descriptions, events and whatnot. I'd suggest to make your game as RPG-without-plot. If you make it as a "RPG, without-a-plot" you will receive assistance in your idea, but also there will be a load of folks who will use that as excuse to tell you that they can do it better than you and to do it

What's new in Warhammer 40,000: Inquisitor - Martyr - Reverence Emote:

Bieber If you've been to a performance, you may have been the center of attention. A good costume goes a long way toward helping you stand out from the rest of the crowd. You may not get the same chance in the busy frenzy of a performance to allow the details of a wicked costume to stick in your friends' memories. The best ones are featured here, with pictures and reviews of each to help you choose one! The DOA6 Pirates of the 7 Seas Costumes are available in several sizes to fit most of us. They include a 3/4 length princess cloak and visor, belt, gloves, boots, tights and waist-length pirate shirt. The visor is not molded but is pinned to the hat where the sleep has worn off. The boots are slippers that look like boots and have a Velcro closure. On top of that, you have a belt and shoulder armor that needs a penny to make it sing. The shirt has a pleated collar and back and a side tab closure. The boots are included with the rest of the outfit. The costumes include a pirate tights piece but not a purse. Your friends will need to supply a purse for them to wear when they are not in costume. Ever wonder what goes into a wicked costume? It's not as easy as running around and shooting pool with a random piece of clothing from your closet. It takes a lot of work. You need to know what to do from head to foot to make sure your wicked costume is all the rage. Well, you are in luck! LaCostume.com has put together a list of information to help you choose the best wicked costume for yourself. Clothing is the Notable Areas in Your Wicked Costumes What to wear needs to be thought out to make sure what you are wearing is the best thing around. Let's face it, a wicked costume is not complete unless you start dressing wickedly. With a wicked costume it is everything you wear. The best way to narrow down your choices is by what you have on at the moment. It is important to wear clothing that looks wicked with your costume. You do not want to find something that looks totally out of place. If it does not look good with the costume, no matter how wicked it may be, it is not likely to be the favorite in the crowd. However, it is okay to take a little more time than you would on a regular day and pick
